

This workshop is organized in collaboration with the Memory & The Pre-Modern North Network and fully funded by the SNSF Ambizione-project Gedächtniskultur im Paratext - Textträger altnordischer

SWISS NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

University of Zurich^{UZH}

Department of German and Scandinavian Studies

Deutsches Seminar
Schönberggasse 2
SOG B-07

The Emergence and Organization of Memory through Paratexts

University of Zurich
January 9-10 2020

Deutsches Seminar
Schönberggasse 2
SOG B-07

Organized by Lukas Rösli in collaboration with the Memory & The Pre-Modern North Network
www.ds.uzh.ch/paratext

Thursday, 09.01.2020

10:00-10:30

Lukas Rösli (University of Zurich)

Introduction

10:30-11:30

Jürg Glauser (University of Basel and University of Zurich)

The Mnemonic Nature of Paratexts. How Textual Boundaries Generate and Transmit Memory

11:30-12:30

Karl G. Johansson (University of Oslo)

Marginal Memories. Methodological Aspects of Studying Marginalia in Medieval Manuscripts

12:30-14:00

Lunch

14:00-15:00

Katharina Heinz (University of Oslo)

Paratextual Ordering of 'Old' Knowledge

15:00-16:00

Stefanie Gropper (University of Tübingen)

Titles as Representatives for Memory: The Mouvance in Naming Sagas

16:00-16:30

Coffee break

16:30-17:30

Sarah Künzler (University of Glasgow)

Ad delectationem stultorum: Paratexts in the Book of Leinster

19:00

Dinner at Brasserie Freilager

Friday, 10.01.2020

9:00-10:00

Stephen Mitchell (Harvard University)

Paratexts and Memory in Medieval Medical Treatises

10:00-11:00

Friederike Richter (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin and University of Zurich)

Myths, Mythology or Mythography? Early Modern Prefaces to Prose Edda

11:00-11:30

Coffee break

11:30-12:30

Elisabeth Rudolph (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin)

Reliquos errores prudentia tua corrigat Lector. Errata Lists as a Means of Changing Written Knowledge

12:30-13:30

Gudrun Bamberger (University of Tübingen)

The Emergence of the Author – Jörg Wickram in his Prefaces

13:30

Closing discussion